

We're looking for a Software Developer!

We have an exciting new position for a Software Developer available due to our continued growth. You should be a good all rounder who isn't afraid to get stuck in.

At John Greed Jewellery we believe that great employees are worth investing in. As one of the UK's most exciting and fastest growing independent jewellery retailers, our success is down to our talented team and innovative approach. We are now the UK's leading seller of PANDORA and one of the largest engravers of jewellery in the UK. With our flourishing online presence and flagship Lincoln store we hope that you'll become part of our story.

What's important to us:

Curiosity - frequently the best solution is not immediately obvious. By using your natural curiosity and drive you should feel empowered to excel at everything you and your colleagues do.

Responsibility – we have an obligation to our customers, employees, and partners to run highly robust systems that operate consistently and smoothly using best practices.

Agility – flexibility and a desire to be nimble, smart, and effective are important to the John Greed culture. We move fast, cutting out red tape to get the job done.

Experience – we're building a strong team with amazing track records of achievement in multidisciplinary environments.

As a Software Developer, you'll need:

- A proven track record of at least 2+ years commercial experience
- Worked on a production-level application preferably in Go, but alternatively in Ruby, JavaScript, Typescript or PHP
- To be extremely confident with the Linux/MacOS command line
- Experience of MySQL/PostgreSQL
- Knowledge or practical use of Google Cloud Platform (preferred) or AWS

Some 'nice to have' skills:

- Familiar with Kubernetes, RPC (gRPC), and distributed SOA
- Familiar with React, React Native, and GraphQL
- Experience working with CI/CD
- Wordpress and Magento 2 plugin/theme development and maintenance

What we can offer:

Aside from working alongside brilliant, dedicated, passionate, down-to-earth, inquisitive, warm, and thoughtful people, we also provide great perks:

- Flexible working hours
- Relaxed, spacious office in the heart of Lincoln
- Free off-road parking with quick access to the high street
- Company laptop (Chrome OS, Mac or Windows)
- Company bonus program
- Staff discount of 33% or higher on jewellery
- Holiday buy back scheme
- Salary Guide: £28,000 - £35,000
